BIG DECLINE IN IMPORTS

WASHINGTON, September 9.—An analysis of American imports, issued today by the Department of Commerce, showed the value of goods shipped into the United States during the fiscal year of 1915 was less by $219,700,000 than the previous year's.

Total imports amounted to $1,674,200,000. Decreases in the imports of manufacturers for most of the food products—account for most of the reduction.

Cane sugar, worth $174,000,000, led all other products entering into the total trade and commerce with a value of $106,700,000.

Imports of precious stones showed a reduction of $43,200,000 over the previous year's business.
